Mr. Emmett D. Echols
Director of Personnel
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Echols:

I am glad to have your letter of 12 December 1963 regarding the National Defense Executive Reserve for the Agency. I appreciated the honor and trust expressed in my appointment to the Reserve and I also fully understand that it has not been useful in the work of the Agency. I have destroyed the Civil Defense Identification Card on this date.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

STATINTL
